Date: 17th January, 2020

Dear Parents,

This is to inform you that all the students of classes VII-IX and XI have been selected to participate in 'Human Chain formation' along with their teachers and other staff members representing our school in 'Jal-Jeevan Hariyali' campaign launched by District Administration, Patna. The human chain formation is scheduled to be held on Sunday, 19th January 2020 between 11:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon and our school has been chosen to be on CM's route along Raj-Bhawan Path, Patna.

The active participation of each child is must as a part of the mission taken up by Bihar Education Dept and it is expected that all the Parents will lend an encouraging hand to make it a grand success. It will be a working day and attendance will be compulsory as well as it will be a part of subject enrichment activity for their academic subjects and will be awarded full marks as far as internal assessment is concerned. Absentees will be marked Grade-E in their scholastic and co-scholastic activities.

Children must carry their lunch, water bottle, almanac and a rough note-book in their school bag and in none of the case any type of electronic gadget will be allowed.

Buses will ply on all the routes and all the students will be reporting to school. Reporting time to school will be 07:45 am and dispersal will take place from the school around 01:00 pm. The students who commute by private-auto, bi-cycle and supervision must make their own arrangements and report to school on time.

Students are required to be in a neat and tidy winter uniform along with blazer, tie and proper haircut.

For any queries do contact School-office or Transport In-Charge

With Regards,
