Project Lay out-Subject wise-Instructions for the Project

Government around the world lack sensitivity over control of environment with sustainability measures, in the recent times this lack of empathy has reached to peak when environmental disasters has incurred in plenty.

Countries such as Australia; India, USA and Brazil has shown extreme leniency towards environmental destruction including loss of flora and fauna by their respective governments.

The wildfire spread out in Australia grasslands has had devastating and horrendous consequences causing loss and death of around 2 billion animals in just 1 week time. Sluggish and laxity administrative measures led to critical analysis of government across media with no quick measures to control the spread of wildfire.

Introspecting into these 4 nations find out how Assam and Bihar floods in India; deforestation of Amazon basin; forest wildfire spread out in one of the states of USA(California) and Australia has been a matter of concern as in spite of democratic government these nations have shown a poor performance in context to environmental protection.

QUESTIONS
